

blog post to book

Some worksheets to help you get it done.

Use this set of worksheets along with the notes in the post (byregina.com/blog-post-to-book/) to fill out content and section ideas for your book. Try to think like your readers and the people who need your book.

CURRENT POST/SERIES

Record the sections or posts you currently have:

WORKING CHAPTER LIST

You'll fill this section out using the sections you want to keep from the list on the left as well as the chapters you think of as you go through the remaining pages.

Can I expand my current post(s)
with additional points?

CHAPTER OR SECTION IDEAS:

Can I focus on a different aspect than my current post(s)?

CHAPTER OR SECTION IDEAS:

Can I give more background information?

CHAPTER OR SECTION IDEAS:

Can I make it apply to a certain segment of people?

CHAPTER OR SECTION IDEAS:

Can I write the follow-up content?

CHAPTER OR SECTION IDEAS:

NOTES

RECORD ANY NOTES HERE BEFORE YOU BEGIN
THE NEXT SECTION OF QUESTIONS.

Why does my ideal reader want to learn about this topic? What does it matter to them?

CHAPTER OR SECTION IDEAS:

Where does my ideal audience need to start? Do they need to begin before my blog post(s)?

CHAPTER OR SECTION IDEAS:

What are additional concerns my audience might have that I have had before, heard before, or can relate to?

CHAPTER OR SECTION IDEAS:

What additional resources will enhance my audience's understanding of this topic? Do I need other formats?

CHAPTER OR SECTION IDEAS:

Which of these topics and ideas fit together as one book and which ones could be expanded on later or made into separate books?

CHAPTER OR SECTION IDEAS:

RECORD THE IDEAS THAT YOU'LL SAVE FOR ANOTHER BOOK HERE:

FUTURE BOOK IDEAS: